Summary

Here are some facts you should know about me,

I am a fullstack webdeveloper. For backend I like to use python based Django or Express & for frontend I like to use Vue. I tried React though. But Vue is a different level of satisfaction. I love math, so building logics in programming is my passion. I use Linux as my primary OS for several years. I love linux and all open source platforms. Recently I'm contributing some of their projects.

Here are some Projects I've already done.
